

craving

the sea is angry the shore is wasted these waves are breaking free this room is sticky the walls are shaking my mind is breaking free

hush hush hush
it's not a one man's land
hush hush hush
it's on our command
there's a higher love a whiter dove nothing has just been planned so hush hush hush
on our command

we enter new dimensions we demand the promised land – now there must be something better don't you know why?
discover new directions walking the parade again, yea hoping for the better
don't you know why?

the past is over the dreams cry louder the craving grows inside it's screaming from hunger longing for thunder unwrapping the jewels allied

hush hush hush
it's on our command
there's a brighter light no walls in sight cause nothing has been planned
make a stand

the drifter

walk with me join the sad brigade fake smiles forever
and ever
and shine

fall for me unravel all that fades spin your wheels forever

hey we tranquillize their world until we flow and hide our places so they'll never know twist our ways through bitterness and mock and hope this ticking clock will never stop trust in me let it spread throughout stand proud forever and always shine

“how am I supposed to know how am I supposed to chose one way over the other and why is it so important to be part of all the same life when all I want to be is a light in your sky” lovesong

I know the tension will be released at last your body's shaking, shivering aghast this car won't drive you anywhere fast enough your mind's not playing tricks on you we call for the good, the sad, treasures we had

we're lovers forever
the souls are mad

how ever hard you'll try you can not forget how ever hard you stare I won't burn this moment is all frozen and stuck in time come with me and never regret we call for the good, the bad,

follow me softly just follow the whispers and move to the sound that the wings make no harm and no evil

this isn't falling don't say goodbye this is a calling no need to cry
we are all light

no loud claps of thunder no thoughts and no noise and no nothing by no means forever don't wave goodbye we won't be crying no one's left behind

wasted heart

you've got your head in the clouds sometimes you make me wanna overdose
you make my mind bloody sore you're an open book of tragedies a humble shining light but nothing ever runs you down you always get your bite yea.

you got me dealing with a situation I can't control and left me aching with a burnt heart and a stinging soul I keep thinking that the slightest wink could have turned it all around but I guess that all this mess was just a small footprint on your ground yea.

you're the morning light you're the sickness of my wasted heart
the golden thorn stuck in my bleeding eye your tragedy is your honesty your inability to lie the things you do and all that makes you you the confession lies in your eyes no need to be so fussed about it no need to hang your head there's more about you but what do I know

yea.

spark

I feel the night gently coating my skin breathe in and pause and close my eyes no need to see no room for fears one step at a time
one more to know

I'm on my own

dark clouds ahead I'm drifting over the land cold wind in my face clear thoughts in mind no need for words I fill my heart with precious gold I'm bound for more more than love

you were the spark to light my heart you were the spirit in my soul and I'm still carrying your light since you left me on my own wait for me, call me, not everything was bad and rough hold me, console me these bad days gone on too long I will wait for you

pretend and hide beneath my skin watch the world from within it's a safe, secured me my heart's the one to please I float in space and drown in time tonight my world is all there is treasuring my bliss don't wake up please don't wake up

this is my pride my show this feels so right shine and glow will I ever (be)?

7 minutes late

hey, I'm here now, can't you see? everything is alright can you feel my hands in yours just like it used to be all my life I've been running around searching for what was mine and every time, when I thought I'd found I realised it's all gone

please, open your heart for me just for one last time, don't leave now 'cause I promise to change what I can I cannot stay without you, without you

I could drive you home and bed you on flowers, love and watch you sleep tonight I would dry your tears could hold you for evermore just keep this love alight my elegy

all the sounds in the wind have changed fallen owls all around me I don't know why all these eyes keep staring at me frozen-eyed cause my dreams are gone stone-faced and the water runs down so slowly watching all the waves break hard and I'll strap my wings on to fly colour-blind and a useless heart shore-wasted from the start I don't know why all these things keep happening to me

every day is an elegy barefoot glass walking harmony watching all these clouds grow dark and I'm strapping my wings on to fly every noise in the wind has changed flying high and I shiver (I don't know why) everything is shining at me the sun burns, I won't turn away eyes-weeping melody watching all my feathers sliding down cause I don't need no wings to fly

I will follow steaming earth, my steps unsure is it the sun, is it the moon? reflecting faces in my mind I will follow you

a naked breeze whispering my name telling me things that were before touching my skin, teasing my soul

walking through the mourning fields I don't believe what my eyes see shattered horizon, falling trees but I will follow you hear your call say goodbye

I won't fall leave behind time to go, time to find...I will follow you burning sounds, blowing my mind your voice, your voice, deceiving me making me so quiet, just bring me home

see it all see it now like it was see you there I come – I will follow you make it rain

you pushed me overboard i screamed i called insane i lost my grip the waves they took my name lost in space, in time, gasping for air,
the truth is bent but we are bound again

it's alright cause i will make it rain again my lover calls again i felt so small was shrinking in my brain lost my sight, forgot i was in the game the perfect storm was howling in my head the truth was torn makes our love the more intense
